

MAGALI · THIBAUT
DECOSTER

Château La Commanderie

Grand Cru Classé

TECHNICAL SHEET

2011

|                          |                                                                                    |
|--------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| APPELLATION              | Saint-Emilion Grand Cru                                                            |
| SURFACE AREA             | 6 ha                                                                               |
| LOCATION                 | Saint-Emilion Plateau                                                              |
| SUN EXPOSURE             | South-Facing                                                                       |
| SOIL                     | Gravel, ferruginous sand and clay                                                  |
| VINE DENSITY             | 6 500 to 8 500 vines/ha                                                            |
| AVERAGE AGE OF THE VINES | 40 years                                                                           |
| CULTURE PRACTICES        | Reasoned and grassing                                                              |
| PRUNING                  | Guyot cut with de-budding                                                          |
| BLEND                    | Merlot: 80%Cabernet Franc: 20%                                                 |
| ALCOHOL                  | 13,5 %                                                                             |
| HARVEST PERIOD           | From September 24th to 27th, 2011                                                  |
| HARVEST                  | By hand, in small crates, several sortings                                         |
| AVERAGE YIELD            | 37 hl/ha                                                                           |
| VINIFICATION             | Soaking from cold to 32°CMalolactic fermentation in 50% wood barrels, 50% vats |
| FERMENTATION             | 28 days                                                                            |
| VATS                     | Concrete (80hl)                                                                    |
| AGEING                   | 17 months - 50% new oak                                                            |
| BOTTLEING                | April 04th, 2013                                                                   |
| PRODUCTION               | 32 000 bottles                                                                     |
| OENOLOGIST CONSULTANT    | Hubert de Bouard de Laforest                                                       |

